DECLARATION OF INDEFINITE STRIKE

In an emergency National Council meeting of the Colleges of Education Teachers' Association of Ghana (CETAG) on Tuesday, January 4, 2022, the National Council unanimously agreed to embark on an indefinite strike across all forty-six (46) Ghanaian public Colleges of Education effective Thursday, January 6, 2022.

The indefinite industrial action is grounded on the following:

- 1 Failure by the Government to implement the 2017–2020 Conditions of Service as agreed.
- 2 CETAG and Government signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) on September 24, 2021, after reaching agreements on 2017-2020 Conditions of Service (CoS) for members of the Association.
- 3 The said (MoU) states the effective date of implementation as January 1, 2021, while payment of associated arrears of nine (9) months was to be paid in October, November, and December 2021.

By this release therefore, the Association's National Council has resolved to follow through with its decision to withdraw TEACHING, one of its main duties, as stipulated in the Harmonised Conditions for Colleges of Education effective Thursday, January 6, 2022. The National Council would like to use this opportunity to entreat all CETAG members to comply with this directive until further notice.
